

GOVERNMENT AIZAWL NORTH COLLEGE

International Women's Day Report : 2022

Time : 8th March 2022, 7:30 to 8:30pm

Topic : Welsh Missionaries and the Transformation of the Mizo woman

Speaker: Dr. Lalhmingliani Ralte, Asso. Prof, Dept. of History

The programme was jointly organized by the Equal Opportunity Cell and the Women Development Cell, Government Aizawl North College.

The programme was chaired by Mrs. Ramhmangaihi, Vice Chairman of the Women Development Cell. She opened the event with a short welcome speech to all the participants and talked about International Women's Day.

After the welcome speech, she invited the speaker to present the paper. The paper delved into the works done by the Welsh missionaries in North Lushai Hills and how the transformation of the Mizo woman began through them.

A lively discussion session ensued after the presentation.

The webinar was attended by 54 participants, both from the student community and the faculty.

The programme ended with a vote of thanks from Mr. Lallura Zote, Chairman of the Equal Opportunity Cell.
