

National Voters Day.

National Voters Day is being observed today in room number 405. Observance of NVD is jointly organised by the Department of political science and Innovation, Environment and Social Services Committee of IQAC. Mr K.Vanlalawia, Chairman of the Committee chaired the program and led the pledge taking of Voter's Pledge. Dr C.Lalhmanmawia, Convener of Electoral Literary Club of the institution delivered a speech as a resource person. He narrated the history of National Voters Day and urged the audience to exercise their voting rights in every election to uphold the democratic traditions of our country. He also emphasized the importance of that every eligible voter is duty bound to vote fearlessly without being influenced by considerations of religion, race, caste languages etc.

National Voters Day is being observed across the country, state, district, constituency and polling booth levels since 2011 in commemoration of the establishment of the Election Commission of India on 25 January 1950. The theme of the Day this year is "Nothing like voting, I vote for sure". The program is attended by 65 number of Political Science core students. The program was closed with a vote of thanks from Pi Ramhmangaihi, HOD of Political Science.
