

ONLINE LECTURE ON POPULAR CULTURE: INTRODUCTORY PERSPECTIVES

Organised by Department of English on 22.7.2022

The Department conducted an online lecture on Popular Culture: Introductory Perspectives. The resource person for the lecture was Dr. Cherrie L.Chhangte, who is presently residing in Illinois, United States. A Fulbrighter from Stanford University, California, she has worked intensively in culture and folk studies and creative writings. 45 people including students, faculty member the college and outside attended this online lecture.

Her lecture explored the complex world of ‘popular’ and the inter-relationship with culture. The speaker re-evaluated how culture comes into existence and how it makes spaces for the ‘popular’. She explained how mass media plays an important role and how this shapes our everyday lives. The lecture was well received by the students as well as the teachers.

Report prepared by – Dr. Ramdinthari