Best Practices

1. Dress Code and Decorum

All the faculty and the office staff are requested to be dressed in modest attires and to maintain decorum both in dress and behaviour.

The staff are again requested to be in traditional dresses on every Wednesdays. This is practised in hoping to inculcate respect and remembrance to the various cultures to which we belong.

Students are also required to dress up in college T-shirts on every Tuesdays and Fridays with an expectation to develop a sense of brotherhood among themselves.

Initiatives taken to beautify the college campus. Volunteers from NSS and NCC actively participated in this drive.

2. Library-cum-Literacy programme.

The Library Committee in collaboration with IQAC organised special programme-Library Users-cum-Literacy programme for every New student at the beginning of First Semester every Odd Semester. Newcomers are informed and guided how to utilize the Library Resources and career guidance given to them by the Librarian and faculty members. This programme proved to have been quite instrumental and helpful for the new students for their academic endeavours.
