TWO BEST PRACTICES ADOPTED BY THE GOVERNMENT AIZAWL NORTH COLLEGE

(2014-15)

The IQAC committee narrows down the two best practices adopted by the Govt. Aizawl North College under the following:-

1. Best Practice No.1

a) Title: Library Cum Literacy Training: Since 2002, the Library Committee and the IQAC adopted “Library cum literacy training” for newly admitted students. Majority of students’ intake into the Government Aizawl North College have been composed of rural background from various parts of Mizoram where infrastructures, computer skills and library facilities are limited. Keeping in mind these requirements and needs of the students, the programme has been initiated to enhance students’ knowledge on accessing reading materials (online, suggested reading, additional reading materials etc).

b) Objectives of the Practice: The main objective of the practice are:-

- ✓ To equip the newly admitted students with proper knowledge for better accessing of library facilities in their respective subjects.
- ✓ To enhance the skill of students to find good materials for their assignments, tests and final exams through library materials.
- ✓ To familiarize students with ICT facilities available at the library to enhance their skills in accessing study materials.
- ✓ To integrate newly admitted students into the college environment.

c) The Context: The Library Committee under IQAC with the supervision of the Librarian and the College Principal initiated the programme way back in the year 2002, so that students can enhance their knowledge and skill through the available library infrastructures and materials. We are very grateful that the programme is running continuously till the report is being prepared.

d) The Practice: At the beginning of every semester, the IQAC and Library committee chalk out the programme (time table) for the core students within a period of one hour session. The session is in the form of presentation followed by question and discussion time. Presentation has been given by the Librarian regarding the available facilities, materials and helpdesk at the library. Every year, the training programme has been designed to be interactive – 50/50% on both the organizer and student level. Attendance of students in this programme has been made compulsory by the IQAC and Library committee. Each Head of Department are invited to chair the sessions.

e) Problems Encountered and Resources Required: To enhance this programme a faculty member from this college - Mrs. Lianchungi, Assistant Professor, the Economic Department took further step by conducting a survey on “Utilization of library resources and services by students, faculties, and staff of Government Aizawl North College” in 2014-2015. Her research finding will be published in the seminar proceeding “Role of Library in Higher Education: Problems & Prospects” which will be published by Govt. Aizawl North College in 2016. Her research finding suggests that students depending on library resources are limited due to lack of knowledge concerning accessing of library resources. Therefore, the Library Committee and IQAC finds the programme should be continued for the sake of students’ benefit.

f) Evidence of Success: Ever since the programme was initiated, newly admitted students benefit the programme though there are no statistical accounts to provide the numbers of benefitted students. In future the IQAC sub-Committee “Library Committee” committed to continue the trend as well as to find out (through feedback system) the number of students benefitting the programme. In addition, best user of library from every semester has been awarded a certificate by library committee as a token of appreciation. Mr Lalthanmawia, 3rd Semester student was awarded as the Best User of the Government Aizawl North College Library with a score point of 56% in the reporting period 2014-2015.

2. Best Practice No.2

a) Title: Dress Code For Students and Faculty Members

b) The Context: The Government Aizawl North College welcomes the diversity of students, staffs and visitors. However, there may be some occasions where health and safety or professional considerations would restrict certain modes of dress and the wearing of jewellery. Not all students displayed good common sense or good taste when it comes to clothing and jewellery. Some dresses can be inappropriate for college settings. Yet another reason would be that, differences in dresses among the rich and poor background could harm the integrity of the institution.

c) Objective of the Practice: The main objectives of this practice are:

- ✓ To maintain college integrity.
- ✓ To ensure health and safety standards.
- ✓ To preserve and maintain traditional attires of various students’ communities.

d) The Practice: Taking the above point into considerations, all newly admitted students have been provided with college t-shirts at the time of admission. A purple coloured t-shirt with the college logo printed at the front was selected by the college under the supervision of IQAC. This practice has been introduced in the year 2009. Faculty members are also provided with blazers with government Aizawl North college logo on its front.

Faculties are also expected to wear blazer on special occasions, though many faculties wear blazer on daily basis. College T-Shirt is made compulsory to wear on every Tuesdays and Fridays. The Students’ Union is responsible to watch out that rules have been complied. Those who fail to comply with the rule have been charged with a fine of Rs 50 per day. Besides this, students as well as faculty members are encouraged to wear traditional dresses on every Wednesdays.

Also, every core have their respective Core T-Shirts and the cost of which is being raised by the students themselves.

e) Problems Encountered and Resources Required: Exemptions are granted based on medical, ethnic, religious grounds etc. Wearing of religious and ethnic attires are welcomed on the college premises. Students are given a choice if they have any complaint regarding dress code and its related issues to ‘Discipline Sub-Committee’ and ‘Student Support and Progression Committee’.

d) Evidence of Success: Dress code promotes “oneness” in the college premises despite different backgrounds, irrespective of ‘ethnic or religious diversity’, ‘rich’ or ‘poor’, ‘rural’ or ‘urban’ etc. Although College T-shirt is made compulsory to wear on Tuesdays and Fridays, many students wear it on daily basis. Many students found the practice of wearing Collage T-Shirt on daily basis more economically viable as they can avoid huge expenditure on clothes.
